
ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE Exam board: AQA

Aims of the Course

- aid understanding of the way in which writers use form, structure and language to shape meanings.
- develop a critical sense, personal response and independent judgement.
- promote understanding of the ways in which readers respond to, interpret and value texts.
- enable students to write accurately, clearly and effectively for different purposes and audiences.
- enable students to analyse, interpret and compare texts confidently.
- promote the enjoyment and appreciation, in a disciplined and critical way, of literary and non-literary texts.

Types of Learning Experiences:

Students will explore a broad range of subjects which include poetry, drama, travel-inspired writing and dramatic texts. A variety of writing skills will be developed and a range of fiction and non-fiction texts analysed.

Link Subjects:

English may be taken with any other subject.

Progression to Higher Education:

This course provides a good broad base for most Arts and Humanities degrees

Careers:

.English is especially relevant to those wishing to pursue careers in the media, education, marketing and any career that requires communication and presentation skills

Entry requirements:

A minimum of 5 grades 9-4 at GCSE including English and Maths. GCSE English at a grade 5 or above is preferred.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

Students will follow the following units in Year 1:

2 YEAR LINEAR COURSE:

Paper 1 - Telling stories - 3hrs (40%)

A) Remembered places

- Question from AQA Anthology - Paris.
- Closed book; 40 marks.

B) Imagined worlds

- One question on prose set text -The Handmaid's Tale
 - Closed book; 45 marks
-

Assessment:

Paper 2 - Exploring conflict - 2hrs 30mins (40%)

A) Writing about society

- Re-creative writing with critical commentary—The Great Gatsby
- Open book; 55 marks.

B) Dramatic encounters

- One question on drama set text - Othello
 - Open book; 45 marks
-

Students will follow the following unit in Year 2:

Non-exam assessment (20%)

Making connections—investigation on a chosen theme and texts
Methods of language analysis are integrated into this activity.

Assessment

- Coursework—assessed by teachers, moderated by AQA
 - 50 marks
 - Task: A personal investigation that explores a specific technique or theme in both literary and non-literary discourse
 - 2,500-3,000 words
-

