This opportunity is one that I hope will capture your enthusiasm and I would like to thank you for your interest in this post. On our website you will find our vision and strategy for the school. The Design Department is key to fulfilling this and we are excited about bringing new colleagues into an established and supportive team. Design and Technology sits within the Design team. This post is suitable for an NQT.

In this pack I have tried to ensure that you know something about Oaklands and our Design Department whilst at the same time making clear that the Governors are looking for an outstanding Design and Technology teacher who can demonstrate exceptional classroom practice. You will be required to teach up to GCSE and ideally A Level. The willingness to teach Food or Textiles would also be advantageous.

The fact that you have shown an interest and downloaded a copy of this pack suggests you are already a teacher who can effectively demonstrate in the classroom, practice that reflects contemporary and traditional thinking in the teaching and learning of Design and Technology.

Towards the end of this pack you will find the application information needed to complete the Application Form, which is issued by the Governors.

If you are a Catholic you will understand the distinctiveness of Catholic schools such as Oaklands and this will be attractive to you. You do not have to be a Catholic to work at Oaklands; the Governors welcome applications from candidates of differing faith backgrounds or none, who can be supportive of the school ethos.

The Department offers the new GCSEs in Design and Technology with three classes specialising in Resistant Materials, Electronics and Textiles, as well as, Food Preparation and Nutrition.

Product Design A Level is offered to our Sixth Form students.
In Year 7 and 8 students are taught in a carousel with Art. In Year 9, students choose three Design subjects to study GCSE taster courses to help them make appropriate choices for KS4.

At GCSE and A Level, students’ attainment in Design and Technology subjects is comparable or higher than the national average and students generally make good progress.

Oaklands is one of the few comprehensive Sixth Forms in the area that offers Product Design and historically results have been very good.

The Design Department is mostly located in a purpose built facility, which houses three Art rooms and five Design and Technology rooms. There are three multi-purpose rooms used for Product Design and Resistant Materials and one computer suite, which is also used for Electronics work. This block also contains the Textiles Room. Each room is equipped with appropriate hand and machine tools. In addition, we have a laser cutter, 3D Printer, CNC router and sublimation printing equipment. There are two Food Tech rooms, which are located in a different area of the school.

Staff are committed to being at the leading edge of teaching and learning, providing a first class experience for Oaklands students. For staff, a friendly and supportive environment helps ensure that classroom activities are of the highest quality. Teaching is informed by a strong culture founded on the knowledge of the student.

In addition to the delivery of Design and Technology, the successful candidate must have relevant and up-to-date knowledge in relation to working with and protecting children and young people. All staff at Oaklands are expected to display a commitment to the protection and safeguarding of children and young people.

I hope this information is useful. However, if there is any further way in which I can be of assistance, please do not hesitate to contact me at the school.

Matthew Quinn
Headteacher
Oaklands is a Catholic Academy taking in boys and girls from 11-18, which has been established by the Diocese of Portsmouth for the education of Catholic children who live within the designated parish catchment area allocated to the school. In addition, Oaklands also takes in a number of children from other Christian denominations whose parents have specifically requested a Catholic education at the School, provided that they satisfy the criteria laid down in the Governors’ Admissions Policy.

Oaklands has over 1,300 students on roll, including a Sixth Form College of 220 students. It is a well established comprehensive school, which is well supported by parents and highly respected in the community. Oaklands offers a full range of GCSE, AS and A2 Level courses. Students at all levels are provided with challenge and support as appropriate. The school’s success is rooted in a strong academic tradition.

The school is part of a soft federation; working closely with other local schools, which provides an opportunity to share expertise and resources. We are also a strategic partner in a Catholic Teaching Alliance.

The school will provide you with significant opportunities to help you develop your career so that you can eventually move on and up from the role of classroom teacher.

We are on an exciting and imaginative journey; creativity is the heart of the school’s approach, resulting in innovative approaches to:

- teaching and learning – encouraging questioning, reflection and challenge
- literacy and numeracy – using all subjects to develop these core skills
- curriculum design – establishing a common approach to assessment
- use of data – supporting individual progress and personalising learning
- growing school of leaders – developing leadership at all levels
- School Improvement – empowering staff to take responsibility for areas of change

The school stands within attractive and extensive grounds including woodlands and playing fields. Well-equipped specialist facilities are provided for all areas of the curriculum. In recent years the school has undergone a major refurbishment in many areas.
The Chapel is a focal point the school's spiritual life. Oaklands is also fortunate enough to have a full-time Chaplain.

The aims of the school emphasise the importance of each student as an individual and the need to focus on and promote the spiritual, moral, intellectual, physical, social, personal and cultural development of each person entrusted to our care. To this end, the community endeavour to create a Christ-centred learning community whose primary aim is to ignite a passion for faith and learning. At Oaklands we recognise that students have special and different gifts, we aim to develop them in a climate where they can be shared and personal achievement can be maximised, where difference is not just tolerated but celebrated. Students need to work within an environment where they can develop their unique God given gifts and feel lovable, loved, capable and valued members of the community. This occurs within a warm and caring safe and open environment in which all children can grow in confidence and trust, and achieve their true all round potential.

The school also recognises its responsibility to foster a Christian atmosphere, to equip the young students in its care to face the adult world with confidence and to play a responsible part in a society which is rapidly changing and holds a variety of different standards. This confidence is shaped through a deep understanding of the relationship between faith and culture. Students are encouraged to further their faith journey. To this end Religious Education, Form and Year Assemblies, Year Masses and Liturgical services, full School Masses, Residential Experiences and Community Service are all important aspects in the life of the school.

At Oaklands extra-curricular activities are an essential part of a young person’s development and all students are encouraged to profit from the wide range of activities on offer. Whatever their talents and abilities, there are opportunities to succeed.

The successful pastoral system at Oaklands is built on the strong partnership between the school, home and parish enabling each student to flourish. We believe that parents have a key role to play in the education of their child. The Year Head and Form Tutors, through the pastoral curriculum at Oaklands, emphasise with students the importance of self-discipline and responsibility and also the importance of care, concern and respect for each other.

Assistant Headteacher and Head of Science
Dr Mark Dixon

I started teaching at Oaklands in 2009 and have held several positions at the school since. Most of my training and development has come from experience in the classroom as well as through working with highly skilled and experienced colleagues. I have been Head of Chemistry, Lead Practitioner and Head of Science. These positions have involved increasing levels of responsibility and more influence over teaching and learning in the school. I really enjoy the opportunity of collaborating with my teaching colleagues to help improve the experience of our students in the school, and I am excited about my new position of Assistant Head will give me even more influence in this area.

I really enjoy working in a Catholic School. I am a practicing Catholic and proud parent and I therefore recognise the importance and impact of faith on the lives of young people. All schools are different and have their own character: the Catholic traditions are a big part of what makes our school so special.

For me, the best thing about working at Oaklands is the community. We are lucky to work with fantastic students alongside a caring and supportive staff. Oaklands is a terrific school, has a wonderful community and is hugely enjoyable place to work.

I would recommend it to anyone!

RE Teacher and Lead Tutor for Year 8
Megan Mooney

I am a Teacher of Religious Education (RE) at Oaklands. I joined the team in September 2017.

I am a former student of Oaklands and I left the Sixth Form here with good A-levels and went straight to Chichester University to study Theology and Religious Studies. I remained at Chichester to complete my PGCE (Post Graduate Certificate in Education) and then I landed an interview here!

I had a few jobs before starting Teaching, including working in a Michelin Star restaurant, a café and retail. I also worked some summers at Goodwood. I have been a continuous volunteer at my church in the youth and children’s ministries.

I recently gained the position of Lead Tutor; I assist the Head of Year with a range of pastoral and administration matters to support the progress of our Year 8 students.

Oaklands is a distinctive school; it treats students, as young people with unique gifts and talents. We recognise they have individual needs and we work hard to support them to be the best possible version of themselves.

The first year in teaching is challenging, but I received fantastic support from my mentor and the Department; I constantly worked towards the finish line. Everybody here is treated equally and is given the same respect, whether you are a Teacher, Learning Support Assistant or a Cleaner – we are all one body!

Teaching is a definitely a vocation and I think if it’s the career for you Oaklands will definitely bring you through it!

What about those FOUR reasons why this role might not be for you!

The match of your skills and experiences to our needs is not a good fit

Come and visit us, read the pack, phone Matthew Quinn, Headteacher, and find out if the match is better than you think.

You are anxious about coming into a Catholic school (don’t be)

Again come and visit us, experience our community and talk to staff about their experience. The majority of staff at Oaklands are not Catholic.

You have not taught in a school from KS3 -KS5

If you are not ready for this then we still want to hear from you. Most of our best staff had no Sixth Form experience before coming to Oaklands but with training and development, over time they gained the experience.

You feel you might not be ready to work in a high performing school

If you are still reading, then you probably are.
